Czech Medical Devices Day

25 October 2018 | Embassy of the Czech Republic
afternoon | 26–30 Kensington Palace Gardens, London W84QY

The event will feature top Czech producers of medical devices looking for collaboration with British partners.

The event takes place together with the Czech Heart Day Conference at which leading British and Czech cardiologists will participate, and is a part of the “Czech Week” (22-28 October 2018), organised to celebrate the 100th anniversary of Czechoslovakia.
